

Argo Global Capital

Argo Global Capital Promotes Christopher Legg to Partner

BOSTON, January 1, 2005 – Argo Global Capital, a leading venture capital firm focused on investing in later stage technology companies, has named Christopher Legg as Partner.

Mr. Legg joined Argo Global in 2002 and has served as a Principal on many of the firm's investments. He currently holds board seats on uReach Technologies of Holmdel, NJ and Webraska of Paris, France.

"Chris has brought our firm a wealth of knowledge with high growth technology companies and a diverse experience base in mergers and acquisitions as well as other liquidity events. He has demonstrated the elements needed to create real value and opportunities for our portfolio companies," said Argo President H.H. Haight.

Prior to joining Argo, Mr. Legg was an investment banker with Credit Suisse First Boston in their Technology Group where he had direct involvement in 28 liquidity events, and raised over $240 million of equity for a variety of high growth companies. Mr. Legg was an investment banker for over 10 years in the US, Europe and Canada. He holds an MBA from Harvard Business School.

At Argo Global, Mr. Legg will join a select and diverse group of partners at Argo bringing in new investment opportunities while assisting current portfolio companies reach their next stage of growth with his years of IPO and M&A execution. Mr. Legg will continue to be based in the firm's Boston office.

Argo Global Capital manages more than $500 million of capital and has offices in Boston, Montreal, London and Hong Kong.

H.H. Haight
President and CEO
Argo Global Capital
www.argoglobal.com