The Sylanro Global Summit is an invitation-only event for service providers and Sylanro partners to gather for strategic discussion and hands-on demonstrations addressing the challenges and opportunities faced by service providers deploying hosted applications in the small and medium business market. In addition to daily keynotes, panel discussions and technical, business and marketing breakout sessions, attendees will have the opportunity to:

- Hear real world case studies addressing IMS Applications, Advanced Web Services and Portals, FMC and Mobile Solutions
- Discuss strategies, programs and best practices
- Understand channel distribution, sales and pricing strategies, sales force training, go-to market programs, marketing tools and much more

“With more than 30 participating partners, Sylanro is experiencing overwhelming industry support for Global Summit 2006,” said Pete Bonee, president and CEO, Sylanro Systems. “Our attendees can expect a robust schedule with 3 days of engaging content, innovative product demonstrations and rewarding networking opportunities.”
